

DATE: September 1, 2020
TO: North Carolina Local Government Budget Association Future Members
FROM: Jamie Privuznak, 2020-2021 NCLGBA Treasurer
SUBJECT: 2020-2021 Membership Dues

On behalf of the 2020-2021 Board of Directors, I invite you to newly join or renew your North Carolina Local Government Budget Association (NCLGBA) membership. Your NCLGBA continues to serve as the premier organization for promoting education, professional development, networking and the sharing of information for budget professionals throughout North Carolina.

The NCLGBA's FY21 period is September 1 through August 31. To pay your annual dues and renew and/or join the Association's membership, go to <http://nclgba.org/membership/join-nclgba/>. On this site, you will see this welcome letter, the membership levels, the membership forms, and the dues invoice links.

For your convenience, there are two methods for annual dues payment at the above site: Credit card or check.

- 1) Please select the "online registration and renewal application (2020-2021) – credit card payments" link, if paying your dues with a credit card, or
- 2) Please select the "online registration and renewal application (2020-2021) – check payments" link if you would like to process your dues payment via check.

If applicable, submit any changes to names, addresses, e-mail, and/or other information on the online membership form. This will assist us in keeping our membership records up to date.

After you select your method of payment link, your deliverables to NCLGBA will be as follows: 1) membership form, 2) dues invoice, and 3) form of payment.

Please distribute the membership information to others within your jurisdiction that you feel may have an interest in joining. Interested persons might include city or county managers and assistants; budget or finance directors; management and budget analysts; financial management analysts; or administrative officers in operating departments of your government, public utility, or school units having budget and evaluation responsibilities.

Your NCLGBA Board of Directors looks forward to serving you, throughout the upcoming year. Thank you in advance for your support and your dedication to the field of local government in North Carolina. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me.
