

Advancing strategy, budget & performance management through advocacy, learning, diversity and collaboration.

A. John "Jack" Vogt Award - 2020 Call for Nominations

The North Carolina Local Government Budget Association (NCLGBA) is now accepting nominations for the A. John "Jack" Vogt Award for Outstanding Commitment to the Advancement of Local Government Budgeting & Evaluation.

AWARD PURPOSE

To acknowledge the work of individuals who have advanced the field of budgeting and/or evaluation in North Carolina local government.

ELIGIBILITY

Nominees must have ten (10) years of local government service in North Carolina ("Government service" is defined broadly as any profession that works in or with municipal, county or other local government jurisdictions. Examples include budget/finance professionals, city/county managers, elected officials, academics, local government financial consultants, etc.).

NOMINATION SUBMISSION PERIOD & PRESENTATION OF AWARD

Nominations are considered annually. However, the award is not required to be awarded on an annual basis. Nominations should be submitted from peers in the field of local government budgeting in North Carolina. The nomination deadline for the next issuance of the award is Friday, November 6, at 11:59 p.m. EST. Award recipient(s) will be named at the 2020 NCLGBA Virtual Winter Conference.

AWARD SELECTION CRITERIA

Nominations will be evaluated for consideration based on the following: At least ten (10) years of local government experience in North Carolina; Commitment to the field of local government budgeting and/or evaluation; Commitment to professional development (ongoing commitment to learning); Innovation in budgeting and/or evaluation (demonstrated significant or new course set in local government budgeting and/or evaluation); and Commitment to nurturing, mentoring or educating others in the field

Please enter the information in the fields as requested. The deadline for submission of nominations is 11:59 p.m. EST, Friday, November 6, 2020. Questions regarding the application should be addressed to the NCLGBA at vogtaward@nclgba.org.

NCLGBA

Advancing strategy, budget & performance management through advocacy, learning, diversity and collaboration.

A. John "Jack" Vogt Award Nomination Form

Part 1 - Nominee Contact Information

Name (First, Middle Initial, Last, Suffix)
Title
Jurisdiction
Mailing Address
Daytime Phone Number
Email Address

Part 2 - Nominator Contact Information

Name (First, Middle Initial, Last, Suffix)
Title
Jurisdiction
Mailing Address
Daytime Phone Number
Email Address

Part 3 - Service to Local Government in North Carolina

Outline the nominee's service to local government budgeting in North Carolina, starting with the most recent position. Nominee must have at least 10 years of service to be eligible for this award. Please start with the most recent experience first.

Position Title
Jurisdiction / Agency / Organization
Years of Service (year to year)
Primary Responsibilities

Position Title
Jurisdiction / Agency / Organization
Years of Service (year to year)
Primary Responsibilities

Position Title
Jurisdiction / Agency / Organization
Years of Service (year to year)
Primary Responsibilities

NCLGBA

Advancing strategy, budget & performance management through advocacy, learning, diversity and collaboration.

Please attach additional positions separately as necessary.

Part 4 - Justification for Award

Please provide complete answers to each of the following questions.

Commitment to the Field

Discuss the nominee's demonstrated commitment to the field of local government budgeting and evaluation.

Innovation in Budgeting and/or Evaluation

Discuss how the nominee has demonstrated innovation to budgeting and/or evaluation. What has been the significance or new course set in local government budgeting and/or evaluation due to the nominee's efforts?

Commitment to the Nurturing, Mentoring or Education of Others in the Field

Discuss how the nominee has developed budget and evaluation skills among staff members and peers and how the nominee has cultivated an environment that promotes and encourages professional growth.

Part 5 - Optional Information

Though not required, nominators may submit any additional background information that helps support the nominee. This may include, but is not limited to:

- 1) Letters of support
- 2) Testimonials noticing the nominee's budget and/or evaluation achievements
- 3) Resume or curriculum vitae of the nominee
- 4) Publications noting the achievement(s) of the nominee

Submission of Nomination

The nomination application and optional/supporting information should be sent by email to vogtaward@nclgba.org no later than the established deadline. The subject line of the email should read "Jack Vogt Award Nomination - (Insert Nominee Name)".